white wines & rosé

Sirene California Rose, 2018 | Sirene, French for mermaid, is semi-sweet, light pink in color, and displays irresistible aromas of tropical guava apricot, watermelon, and a sweet scent of magnolia. The finish is crisp, refreshing and enjoyable. | $24/bottle

Sauvignon Blanc, Lodi, 2018 | Our Sauvignon Blanc has delicate aromas of grapefruit, green apple and a hint of key lime, with a crisp acidity on the palate and a stony minerality on the finish. | $24/bottle

Pinot Grigio, Lodi, 2018 | Pinot Grigio, as it is known in Italy, is the best known "white" variant clone of Pinot Noir. Fermented cold in stainless steel, this wine offers aromas and flavors of melon, honeycrisp apple, pineapple and lemon zest with a grapefruit acidity. | $24/bottle

Chardonnay, Santa Cruz Mountains, 2018 | This Chardonnay releases delicate aromas of pear, melon and hazelnut, with a touch of butterscotch. The palate showcases the crisp minerality, with a creamy honey finish. | $30/bottle

red wines

Pinot Noir, Santa Cruz Mountains, 2016 | Our Pinot Noir has vibrant red cherry and cranberries on the nose, with graham crackers and anise that continue onto the palate. Medium-bodied with a soft, round and long lasting finish. $35/bottle

Pinot Noir, Russian River Valley, 2010 | This vintage opens with aromas of cherry, raspberry, and toasty caramel, followed by elegant flavors of plum, toffee, and floral notes. Medium-bodied with a soft, round and long lasting finish. $40/bottle

Nero d'Avola, Tracy Hills, 2014 | Our Nero d'Avola, a lesser known Sicilian varietal, has delicate aromas of mulberry, plum and dried strawberries. Medium-bodied with structured tannins, the palate carries a hint of orange rind and toasted nutmeg. | $30/bottle

Barbera, California, 2015 | Our Barbera offers vibrant aromas of raspberry, blackcurrant, cedar and black pepper. Bright acidity on the palate, ending with flavors of spice that accompanies the smooth finish. | $32/bottle

Primitivo, Amador, 2015 | Full-bodied, deeply colored, rich and concentrated, sometimes called the Mother of Zinfandel, our Primitivo is grown by Dominick at his Amador County vineyard. Presenting robust aromas and flavors of red cherries, raspberries, and dried cranberries, along with cardamom, vanilla, and floral tea. | $39/bottle

Sagrantino, Tracy Hills, 2015 | Our Sagrantino has enticing aromas of cherry cola, black pepper, dark chocolate, and a hint of earthiness that accompanies the rich texture on the palate. | $30/bottle

Montepulciano, California, 2015 | Our Montepulciano has enjoyable aromas of red cherries, wild blueberries, and sweet plums, with accents of vanilla and allspice, and a floral bouquet of lavender and violet. Crisp acidity on the palate, with a hint of coffee on the finish. | $32/bottle

Nebbiolo, Amador, 2014 | This medium-bodied Nebbiolo offers aromas of sweet plum, cranberry, licorice, cigar, dried rose and graham cracker with a dusty minerality and nice acidity on the palate. | $33/bottle

Old Vine Zinfandel, Lodi, 2013 | Our Old Vine Zinfandel offers rich aromas of black currant and blackberry, with a sprinkle of cardamom, cigar box and spicy black pepper. This wine is elegant with a rich texture and a smoky oak finish. | $28/bottle

Syrah, Amador County, 2016 | Our Syrah has a nice elegant bouquet of blueberry, blackcurrant, and ripe plum, complemented by layers of black pepper, savory spice, and a hint of toffee on the palate. Medium-bodied, with big round tannins. | $32/bottle

Cabernet Sauvignon, Alexander Valley, 2012 | Our Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon has complex aromas of dark ripe cherries, blackberries, gingerbread, cocoa, and a hint of sage, with flavors of tobacco, mocha, and spice lingering on the palate in a long elegant finish. | $35/bottle

Pinotage, Amador County, 2013 | Our Pinotage boasts aromas and flavors of black cherry and plum, intertwined with black pepper, and a rich earthiness that leads to a
